Story House Productions

Story House Productions is an international, award-winning TV production company based in Berlin, Munich and Washington D.C. The company's main focus is the production and distribution of high quality, blue-chip non-fiction programming with an international appeal.

Our Berlin office is specialized in documentaries in the field of science and history for clients such as the BBC, Discovery Channel, National Geographic TV or ZDF, Germany. On behalf of German TV channel ProSieben, our Berlin team also produces programming for the popular science stream 'Galileo' such as the magazine 'Galileo am Sonntag' and documentary formats like 'Galileo Spezial'.

Galileo X•Perience

In a new series of 'Galileo Spezial' we focus on the field of human body and psyche and examine and explain fundamental functions and powers in the human being.

The single episodes will have different topics but they all have in common that they show original Footage of a dramatic life changing situation.

The programme aims at giving the viewers a comprehensive inside into different phenomenons combining expert knowledge, real life experiences from affected people and the results of international research.

Therefore we are looking for your Footage!
